15. Multidisciplinary / interdisciplinary

In recognition of the growing significance of a multidisciplinary approach in higher education, the college is fully committed to embracing and implementing this paradigm within its academic framework. While the institution offers a range of subjectspecific courses, it also integrates core papers with a multidisciplinary focus, taught collaboratively by faculty from different departments. This approach fosters a broader understanding of complex issues, encouraging students to connect knowledge across disciplines. Furthermore, several parent subjects include interdisciplinary papers that bridge gaps between diverse academic fields, promoting critical thinking and a holistic perspective. In alignment with the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS), the college has made Skill Enhancement Courses (SECs) mandatory across all subjects. These courses are designed to equip students with practical skills, thereby contributing to their all-round development and employability. Looking ahead, the college aims to expand its multidisciplinary offerings by introducing more add-on courses that address contemporary academic and professional demands. Plans are also underway to organize short-term programs such as Yoga and Well-being, Physical Education, and Sports Development. Additionally, the institution is focused on enhancing sports and cultural infrastructure to support the physical and creative growth of students, ensuring a well-rounded educational experience.

16.Academic bank of credits (ABC):

Baosi Banikanta Kakati College, as an affiliated institution of higher education under Gauhati University, adheres to the curriculum framework, credit system, assessment methods, and other academic guidelines established by the affiliating university. The college's role in curriculum design and related academic reforms is, therefore, shaped by the directives and regulations issued by Gauhati University. Regarding the implementation of the Academic Bank of Credit (ABC), the college has a limited scope for independent action. However, it remains fully committed to complying with the university's instructions to ensure smooth execution of the ABC system. The college takes all necessary steps to facilitate the registration of enrolled students in the Academic Bank of Credit, providing guidance and support as required. By aligning with the university's academic framework, the college ensures that students benefit from the credit transfer system, promoting flexibility and academic mobility in line with national education policies.

Page 9/62 11-02-2025 10:42:47

17.Skill development:

Baosi Banikanta Kakati College is situated in a rural area predominantly inhabited by socially deprived communities. Recognizing the critical need for skill development in such a setting, the college is committed to equipping the younger generation with practical skills that enhance their employability. Despite its limited resources, the college has proactively introduced two skill development courses under the Assam Skill Development Mission (ASDM). These courses are designed to bridge the gap between academic knowledge and industry requirements, incorporating mandatory internships and industry linkages to provide students with hands-on exposure to technical and professional environments, thereby making them industry-ready. In addition to ASDM courses, the college offers a range of certificate programs aimed at diversifying students' skill sets. These include Certificate Courses in Computer Applications, Beautician Training, Spoken English, and Kung Fu, catering to varied interests and career aspirations. Furthermore, students enrolled in conventional academic programs are provided with opportunities to enhance their practical competencies through Skill Enhancement Courses (SECs) available across 16 departments. This comprehensive approach ensures that all students, regardless of their academic discipline, have access to skill-based learning, fostering their holistic development and better preparing them for future career challenges.

18.Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)

Baosi Banikanta Kakati College actively promotes the use of Indian languages in its teaching-learning process to foster linguistic diversity and cultural heritage. The college adopts Assamese, the local language, alongside English as mediums of instruction in both Undergraduate (UG) and Higher Secondary (HS) courses. Additionally, Hindi is used as the medium of instruction in the Department of Hindi at both UG and HS levels. To encourage linguistic proficiency and critical thinking, the college organizes literary competitions, debates, and discussions on language-related and other contemporary issues, providing students with platforms for active participation and intellectual growth. Recognizing the significance of the Indian Knowledge System (IKS), the college incorporates relevant aspects into its curriculum, particularly in subjects such as Philosophy, Assamese, Hindi, English, History, and Botany. The Banikanta Memorial Centre, established in honor of the eminent linguist Dr. Banikanta Kakati, organizes the Banikanta Kakati Memorial Annual

Page 10/62 11-02-2025 10:42:47

Lecture, inviting renowned scholars from Assam to commemorate his birth and death anniversaries. In its community outreach efforts, the college has adopted Domorabowa, a nearby tribal-dominated village inhabited mainly by the Bodo community. To preserve and promote the Bodo language, the college plans to introduce a spoken Bodo language course for both villagers and interested students. Additionally, the college aims to launch short-term and certificate online language courses in the future to further support linguistic education.

19. Focus on Outcome based education (OBE): Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

Baosi Banikanta Kakati College, affiliated with Gauhati University, adheres to the curriculum framework, credit system, assessment methods, and other academic regulations set by the university. As an affiliated institution, the college follows the guidelines prescribed by the university regarding curriculum design and evaluation processes. The implementation of Outcome-Based Education (OBE) requires a restructuring of both the curriculum and the assessment model, a responsibility that lies primarily with Gauhati University. While the college has limited autonomy in making structural changes, it actively strives to enhance the teaching-learning experience within its scope. Faculty members adopt innovative teaching methodologies to make classes more student-centric, fostering active engagement and deeper understanding. Beyond classroom instruction, teachers encourage peer education and collaborative learning, enabling students to extend their academic discussions outside formal settings. Through these efforts, the college ensures a dynamic and participatory learning environment, aligning with modern educational approaches to maximize student success.

20.Distance education/online education:

Baosi Banikanta Kakati College is committed to making higher education accessible to all, including those who are unable to pursue regular courses due to personal, professional, or socioeconomic constraints. To support such learners, the college facilitates distance education by offering undergraduate (UG) and postgraduate (PG) programs through Open and Distance Learning (ODL) mode in collaboration with Krishna Kanta Handiqui State Open University (KKHSOU). The KKHSOU Study Centre at the college caters specifically to the needs of students seeking flexible learning opportunities, enabling them to continue their academic journey while balancing other responsibilities. To further enhance the teaching-learning experience, the college has developed a dedicated online education portal that provides access to study materials, lecture notes, and digital resources, ensuring continuous academic support for both regular and distance learners. In addition to the portal, faculty members effectively utilize various digital platforms such as Google Meet, Zoom, and others for virtual classes, webinars, and interactive sessions. These tools facilitate real-time engagement, making the learning process dynamic and accessible beyond the traditional classroom setting. Through these initiatives, Baosi Banikanta Kakati College ensures that quality education reaches a diverse student population, promoting lifelong learning and professional development.

CURRICULAR ASPECTS
1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation
1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process
Baosi Banikanta Kakati College, as an affiliated institution of Gauhati University, strictly follows its curriculum framework. At the undergraduate level, the college offers BA, BSc, and BCA programs, along with postgraduate studies in Assamese. Curriculum delivery is meticulously structured and documented, reflecting the institution's core values, vision, and mission. Each academic session begins with a centralized routine developed by the Routine Committee, which considers credit requirements, and classroom and laboratory availability. The Academic Committee, in collaboration with Department Heads, formulates effective strategies for curriculum implementation. Additionally, the IQAC works alongside the Academic Committee to design the institutional academic calendar and class schedules, ensuring alignment with Gauhati University's academic timeline. Faculty members employ innovative teaching methods to enhance learning, including seminars, assignments, dissertations, projects, and ICT tools. A comprehensive Student Induction Programme is conducted at the beginning of each session to help students transition into the college environment. Furthermore, project work and field studies are integrated into the curriculum to provide experiential learning opportunities. The Examination Committee meticulously oversees internal and external evaluation processes, ensuring academic integrity and high standards.

1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

The institution is committed to upholding its academic excellence. To achieve this, it meticulously follows a well-designed plan for the effective implementation of its curriculum throughout the year. While the academic calendar is provided by the affiliating university from a broader perspective, the college adapts its activities to suit the specific needs, setting dates for internal assessments and other co-curricular activities accordingly.

The college strictly adheres to the evaluation framework established by the Affiliating University, conducting internal evaluations based on sessional examinations, home assignments, seminars, and attendance records. A dedicated Sessional Examination Committee is appointed to centrally manage these examinations. The committee is responsible for creating a comprehensive examination schedule, collecting question papers from various departments, and producing necessary photocopies.

Additionally, the committee oversees the entire examination process, from conducting the exams to distributing answer scripts to the relevant departments and collecting the mark list of internal evaluation from all the departments. To accommodate absentees, retests are organized. The evaluated scripts are made available for students to review, allowing for discussions on their areas of weakness and opportunities for improvement. Internal marks are allocated based on students' performance in sessional tests (10), home assignments (06), and attendance (04), ensuring a thorough and fair evaluation process.

1.3 - Curriculum Enrichment

1.3.1 - Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability into the Curriculum

BBK College provides comprehensive programs that encompass a range of cross-cutting issues, including Gender, Human Values, Environment, and Sustainability. These themes are interwoven into the curriculum of humanities and social sciences, not only within the classroom but also in various awareness and empowerment initiatives.

Page 16/62 11-02-2025 10:42:47

For instance, the Department of English offers a dedicated paper on Women Studies (ENG-HC-5026), the Department of Philosophy provides courses on ethics (PHI-HE-3036 and PHI-HG-3016), the Department of Political Science offers courses addressing Human Rights, Gender, and Environment (POL-RG-5016), Human Rights (POL-HE-5016), and the Department of Economics includes courses on Environmental Economics (ECO-HE-6016). Furthermore, the Department of Education offers courses on Value and Peace Education (EDU-HE-5026), Women and Society (EDU-HE-5026), and Human Rights Education (EDU-HE-5036).

Environmental Studies is mandatory in the 2nd Semester for the students of both Arts and Science. Students actively engage in projects that involve fieldwork related to environmental issues. Additionally, the Women Cell plays an active role in gender sensitization and women empowerment programs, underscoring the college's commitment to these important societal issues.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

The college strictly follows the evaluation framework established by the affiliating University. Within the CBCS system, the evaluationprocess is categorised into internal and external assessments. The allocation of weightage between these two components stands at 20% and 80% respectively. Internal assessment encompasses sessional examinations, home assignments, seminars, and attendance. The distribution of marks for these components is as follows: sessional tests carry 10 marks, home assignments contribute 6 marks, and attendance accounts for 4 marks, resulting in a cumulative total of 20 marks. Every department within the college diligently maintains attendance records, adhering to the examination regulations set forth by Gauhati University. Additionally, students have to submit home assignments and seminar papers or presentations. Sessional examination is conducted by a dedicated Sessional ExaminationCommittee. This committee is responsible for crafting a comprehensive examination schedule, which is made available on both the college's notice board and website. Furthermore, the committee collects question papers from the departments and generates the requisite number of question papers. It conducts the examination, distributes answer scripts to the respective departments, and compiles the mark list. In cases where students fail or are absent, retests are administered. The internal assessment procedure is time-bound, with the tentative date for the sessional examination outlined in the college's Academic Calendar. Notably, the internal assessment process is transparent, with evaluated scripts being shown to students, allowing for the discussion of their weaknesses and areas for improvement.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time-bound and efficient

The institution maintains a transparent system for addressing grievances concerning internal examinations. The InternalExamination Committee centrally administers internal examinations and retains the record of internal evaluation marks under the secure custody of the Examination Board. Occasionally, during the declaration of semester-end results, a student may be erroneously marked as absent in the internal examination. In such instances, the Principal escalates the issue to the college's Internal Examination Board, which analyzes to identify the problem. Subsequently, the application is forwarded to the Controller of Examinations at Gauhati University to facilitate the necessary resolution of the grievance.

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - Programme and course outcomes for all Programmes offered by the institution are stated and displayed on website and communicated to teachers and students.

Being an affiliated college of Gauhati University, the institution strictly adheres to the university's prescribed syllabus. Thecollege ensures transparency in educational offerings by prominently displaying the program and course outcomes for all programs on theofficial college website. Each department within the institution takes the responsibility of formulating and presenting program and course outcomes on their respective departmental webpages. To facilitate a comprehensive understanding of these program and course outcomes, the faculty members convey this information to the students during departmental orientation programs at the start of each session. Furthermore, these program outcomes are also included in the Student Induction Program of the college. Additionally, students are provided with detailed syllabi and course outcomes for every individual course, ensuring that they are well-informed about heir academic journey.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

The attainment of Programme Outcome and Course Outcome is reflected in the student's progression after completion of a course in theinstitute. Some of the students progress into higher studies and some crack interviews at both state and national levels. Theindividual departments keep track of the student's progression. The institute ensures that the needs and expectations of the studentsare attained for a better CO and PO. Thus the institute organizes institutional field visits, field surveys, seminar presentations, group discussions, quizzes, sports activities, etc. to bring about a judicious mix of both curricular and extracurricular activities forthe successful attainment of PO and CO.

INFRASTRUCTURE AND LEARNING RESOURCES

4.1 - Physical Facilities

4.1.1 - The Institution has adequate infrastructure and physical facilities for teaching-learning. viz., classrooms, laboratories, computing equipment etc.

The institution ensures the availability of physical infrastructure to accommodate the growing student population across variousdepartments. The Academic Council proactively foresees the requirements for classrooms, laboratories, furniture, and other equipment to ensure the seamless functioning of the academic environment. Within the campus, information and communication technology (ICT) tools, such as projectors, computers, and interactive boards, are employed to enrich the teaching and learningexperience. Specifically, an ICT-enabled room is harnessed to enhance the learning process. Moreover, the institution has a computer lab within the Department of Computer Science, which also serves students pursuing certificatecourses apart from the regular practical uses. Furthermore, the college provides campus-wide Wi-Fi facilities to facilitate theteaching and learning processes. Information on OER is disseminated to students through the official college website and WhatsApp groups. The Department of English maintains a dedicated language lab to help students improve their communication skills. Additionally, departments such as Botany, Zoology, Chemistry, Physics, Anthropology, and Education have their respectivelaboratories for hands-on practical work. Information regarding the usage and maintenance policies of the physical facilities is readilyaccessible through the institutional website. Overall, the institution ensures that its physical infrastructure is not onlyavailable in adequate quantities but also utilized to its maximum potential.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The governance of the institution is reflective of and in tune with the vision and mission of the institution

The governance structure of Baosi Banikanta Kakati College reflects strong and visionary leadership aligned with the institution's corevalues. The college is firmly committed to its overarching vision, encapsulated in the statement: "To uplift knowledge, skill, andmorals of the younger generation, contributing to an equitable and progressive society." This vision is pursued by striving to achieve excellence in higher education through the incorporation of innovative approaches and techniques, the delivery of skill-basedand career-oriented learning, the promotion of holistic student development encompassing physical, cultural, and moral aspects, anda dedication to providing inclusive education to women and underserved rural communities. The central objective of the institution's governance is to ensure a democratic approach in its day-to-day administration, facilitatingthe formulation and implementation of policies and actions that emphasize academic quality, extension activities, and innovation. The administration actively involves all stakeholders, including the governing body of the institution. This body comprises the Principal, a representative from the Affiliating University, community representatives, stakeholder groups, teaching and non-teachingstaff, and other essential personnel. Decisions are made collectively, ensuring a broad representation of voices. When necessary, specific committees are constituted to oversee various activities, with each Head of Department (HoD) actively participating in academic committees and relevant issues. Additionally, faculty-led committees are responsible for overseeing the execution of administrative and other significant events, thereby promoting a collaborative and inclusive approach to college governance.

6.1.2 - The effective leadership is visible in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management.

The Governing Body of the institution, comprising representatives from the local community, stakeholders, teaching and nonteachingstaff, the Affiliating University Nominee, and the Principal, serves as the decision-making authority. However, the day-to-day operations of the college are under the purview of the Principal, who manages and oversees the institution's functioning. Various committees are established as needed to handle specific activities, and all Heads of Departments (HoDs) actively participate in academic committees and related matters. Moreover, administrative and other crucial functions are carried out based on discussions held within the respective committees, which consist of staff members. In line with the principles of decentralization and participative management, the college has incorporated students members and female teachers into various operational bodies, such as the Students'Union, RUSA, IQAC, Grievance and Redressal Cell, and the Alumni Association, etc. This approach strengthens participative managementpractices by appointing faculty members as portfolio in-charges, guiding the secretaries of the Students' Union Body. Thesesecretaries play an integral role within the college, actively engaging in activities related to the student community.

mobilization and their effective utilization. The primary source offunding for the college is government grants, encompassing State Government Funds allocated to various categories, such as RUSAfunds, reimbursement of admission fees, salary grants, hostel fees, and funding for NCC and NSS, among others. The college additionally generates internal funds through several sources, including the leasing of its existing ponds, self-financed courses, and running distance learning programmes offered by KKHSOU. Funds procured from these sources are directed towards the comprehensive development of the institution. Government-sourced funds are allocated in alignment with the specified purposes outlined in sanction letters. The college's construction committee closely monitors the progress of ongoing projects and ensures their efficient utilization. Salary grants are disbursed on a monthly basis through an online disbursement system. The relevant granting authority disburses various types of scholarships once they have been verified and approved by the college authority. Similarly, funds designated for NSS and NCC are utilized to support the various programs conducted by these organizations throughout the year. Allocations for the Students Union Body contribute to the organization of events such as the Freshman Social and Annual College Week. Furthermore, funds also allotted for procurement of library resources, sports equipment, payment of electricity bills, remuneration for hostel staff, campus maintenance, and other essential expenses.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non-teaching staff

The college meticulously adheres to the guidelines established by the University Grants Commission (UGC) and the Department of HigherEducation (DHE), Government of Assam, in order to facilitate timely promotions for its employees. Teachers are eligible to seek promotion to the next level through the Career Advancement Scheme (CAS) once they have accumulated therequisite years of experience. To initiate the process, teachers must complete the PBAS proforma, providing the requested information for each year and including all supporting documentation for the specified period. The assessment for promotion is based on the performance across three significant categories: 1. Teaching, learning, and evaluation. 2. Cocurricular, extension, and professional development activities. 3. Research, publication, and academic contributions. Upon completion of the application, the college Principal forwards the promotion file to the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), which conducts a thorough review of the submitted documents. If the teacher attains a score exceeding the minimum prescribed API in eachcategory, the recommendation proceeds to the Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC). The recommendation of DPC is submitted to the Principal and subsequently to the Governing Body (GB) of the college for the necessary approval, which is further forwarded to theDepartment of Higher Education (DHE) for final approval. Nonteaching employees are also required to submit a selfappraisalreport using a standardized format provided by the college. This self-appraisal report is subsequently sent to the DHE for the requisite approval.

6.4 - Financial Management and Resource Mobilization

6.4.1 - Institution conducts internal and external financial audits regularly Enumerate the various internal and external financial audits carried out during the year with the mechanism for settling audit objections within a maximum of 200 words

Baosi Banikanta Kakati College regularly undergoes both internal and external financial audits. The internal audit is carried out by aChartered Accountant (CA) appointed in accordance with a resolution passed by the Governing Body of the college. The CA meticulouslyreviews all original documents related to income and expenditures, which includes receipt books, grant letters, vouchers, ledgers, cash books, bank passbooks, among others. This process is conducted in the presence of the Principal and the college's Accountant.Following the audit, the CA submits a report to the Principal, which is subsequently presented to the Governing Body for approval.On the other hand, the external audit is an independent assessment of all financial transactions that occurred during the fiscal year. It is carried out by government auditors appointed by the Office of the Accountant General, a competent authority under the Governmentof Assam. These appointed auditors meticulously review all original documents, including grant release letters, receipts, paymentrecords, transaction vouchers, ledgers, cash books, and bank passbooks. In cases where doubts or discrepancies arise, theauditors bring these matters to the attention of the Principal. Subsequently, discussions are held with the college's Accountant and Principal, with clarifications being provided based on supporting documents.

6.4.3 - Institutional strategies for mobilization of funds and the optimal utilization of resources

The college employs strategies to efficiently gather and utilize resources. Its primary source of funding is government grants, encompassing various categories of State Government Funds, including RUSA funds, admission fee reimbursements, salary grants, hostelfees, and support for NCC and NSS programs, among others. Additionally, the college generates internal financial resources byleasing its existing ponds. The funds obtained from these sources are directed towards the holistic development of the institution. Government funds are allocated as per the specified purposes outlined in the sanction letters. The construction committee of the college closely monitors the progress of construction projects and their financial utilization. Salary grants are disbursed on a monthly basis through an online disbursement system (https://fin.assam.gov.in/assamfinance/welcome). The college submits the verified list of students for different government scholarships in online mode to the government and the scholarships are accordingly disbursed to the eligible students in DBT mode. Similarly, the funds designated for NCC and NSS are utilized to support the various programs conducted throughout the year. Allocation for the Students Union Body is used for organizing events such as the Freshman Social and Annual College Week. Additionally, these funds contribute to the procurement of library resources, sports equipment, payment of electricity bills, remuneration for hostel staff, campus maintenance, and other essential expenses.

processes, consistently taking measures to enhance the quality of education. The following significant initiatives have been implemented tobolster the teaching and learning mechanisms: Orientation Programme (OP) for Students: At the commencement of each academic session, every department conducts an Orientation Programme for students. This program acquaints students with the details of their study program, providing a concise overview of the program's relevance to their future careers, the syllabus structure, internal and external assessment procedures, and other essential information. Feedback on Teaching and Learning: To enhance the quality of teaching and learning, feedback is solicited from students, teachers, and parents. The input received through the feedback is systematically analyzed and discussed during academic committee meetings. These discussions help identify areas for improvement, and the recommendations are subsequently presented to the college's Principal for necessary implementation. Course Progression Review: Departments conduct reviews of course progression during their departmental meetings. If it is observed that a course is not progressing as scheduled, the department advises the teacher in charge to expedite the process by offering additional classes. In cases where course completion is delayed due to a shortage of Teaching-Learning Materials (TLM), this issue is raised with the Principal for resolution.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

The college actively incorporates gender equity and sensitization into its curriculum, aligning with the official curriculum of Gauhati University, to which it is affiliated. Notably, departments such as Political Science, Education, and English offer a range of courses related to Women's Studies. These courses encompass subjects like Women Power and Politics, Human Rights, Women and Society, and Women's Writing. The institution has established a dedicated Women's Cell responsible for addressing various issues related to women's safety, security, welfare, and empowerment. To ensure the safety of women on campus, the college has installed CCTV cameras throughout the premises. Additionally, the college provides facilities such as a Girl's Hostel, a Girl's Common Room, separate washrooms, and a Day Care Centre.

7.1.3 - Describe the facilities in the Institution for the management of the following types of degradable and non-degradable waste (within 200 words) Solid waste management Liquid waste management Biomedical waste management E-waste management Waste recycling system Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

Baosi Banikanta Kakati College actively implements various initiatives to maintain a waste-free environment. To addressbiodegradable waste, a vermicomposting pit has been established on the college grounds, where biodegradable waste is collected tofacilitate its decomposition into nutrient-rich compost. This compost is then utilized in campus gardening activities. The college has also instituted a systematic waste segregation system with separate dumpsters for biodegradable and nonbiodegradablesolid waste. Green bins are designated for wet and biodegradable garbage, while blue bins are allocated for plasticwrappers and non-biodegradable waste. These waste materials are diligently collected in the appropriate bins and subsequently disposed of. Biodegradable waste, once the bins are full, is deposited into a designated concrete pit for composting. The management of liquid waste is equally efficient. Wastewater from restrooms, canteens, and hostels follows a conventional sewer system and is partially absorbed into the soil. Additionally, local pig farmers collect waste foods from hostels to serve as sustenance for pigs. Laboratory-generated biochemical waste is carefully disposed of in a designated biochemical waste disposal facility. The college alsoprovides a designated E-waste storage facility to store any electronic waste produced within the college premises. Notably, the college adheres to best practices in waste management, and no hazardous chemicals or radioactive waste are generated as part of its activities.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

Best Practice 1: Vermicomposting at BBK College

Objectives of the Practice

- 1. Foster environmental responsibility and community engagement.
- 2. Promote sustainable waste management on campus.
- 3. Provide hands-on learning in composting and sustainable agriculture.
- 4. Enhance soil fertility in campus gardens through highquality compost.

Context:BBK College's vermicomposting initiative promotes sustainability by managing waste, enriching gardens, and fostering environmental awareness among students and staff.

The Practice: The Zoology Department, with Barpeta Agriculture Department, led vermicomposting, training students and producing compost for campus and community use.

Evidence of Success: The college now produces ample compost for its gardens and the broader community. Students gain valuable experience in waste management, reinforcing their academic learning and practical skills.

Challenges and Resources Required

- Lack of initial knowledge and expertise in vermicomposting.
- Challenges in waste segregation and collection.
- Need for proper infrastructure, including composting beds and shelter.

Best Practice 2: Distance Education through KKHSOU Study Center

Objectives of the Practice

- 1. Provide flexible learning opportunities through distance education.
- 2. Support working professionals and marginalized communities in pursuing academic goals.
- 3. Enhance career prospects through undergraduate and postgraduate programs.

Context:BBK College introduced KKHSOU distance education in 2019-20, offering BA and MA for flexible, inclusive learning.

The Practice: The college offers study materials, contact classes, evaluations, and support, ensuring flexible, accessible, and lifelong learning.

Evidence of Success:

- Enrollment Growth: A steady increase in student admissions.
- Academic Performance: Students achieve consistently good results.
- Resource Generation: The program contributes marginally to institutional revenue.
